

4141 US Highway 26

A magnificent waterfront property bordering the spectacular Wind River, boasting mature Pine, spectacular views, wildlife, and access to public land. This property is currently platted as the Rawhide Subdivision, consisting of Lots 1-8, 10, 11, and 12-14. Only ten miles west of Dubois and ninety minutes from Jackson Hole and Yellowstone National Park. The recreational opportunities in this location are simply unsurpassed. Close to the Continental Divide Trail for snowmobiling, and hundreds of miles of Forest Service trails for hiking, horseback riding, and four-wheeling. This parcel could also be an outstanding horse property for discriminating buyers looking for a large parcel to build to their own specifications.
